

FRÉDÉRIC MAGNIEN

GRANDS VINS DE BOURGOGNE

VILLAGE
MOREY-SAINT-DENIS
Les Larrets

GEOGRAPHIC DESCRIPTION

It is in 1120 that one finds the first mention of Morey, place of asylum of the monks of Cîteaux in the fourteenth century which possessed probably many vines and even a winery already in 1306. The name extends from Gevrey-Chambertin to Chambolle-Musigny and counts about 148 ha composed of 80% red wines.

GEOLOGICAL DESCRIPTION

This wine is made up of 50% Chardonnay, 25% Pinot Beurot, 25% Pinot Blanc. The plot is located at the top of the hillside, above the Grand Cru "Clos des Lambrays". The soil is very stony and limestone.

FOOD & WINE AGREEMENT

A rich and complex wine that will be perfectly accompanied by creamy white meats.

